

Evergreen Invitational Post-Event Release- Candid Candace
October 7, 2016

The 6th biennial Evergreen Invitational, an invite-only equestrian grand prix show jumping competition and luncheon, was held on September 10 at M.K. and J.B. Pritzker's farm in Bristol, Wisconsin. The event was co-chaired by Meredith Wood-Prince and Elizabeth A. Coleman and drew more than 600 guests who came to support a wonderful cause and witness nationally ranked riders compete for the $25,000 Junior/Amateur Owner Classic and $75,000 Grand Prix prizes.

A “Promenade of Shops” on the grounds featured the exquisite jewelry of Jack Vartanian, men’s haberdasher Frederick Lynn, classic American clothier J. McLaughlin, Shelley Johnstone

Co-chairs Meredith Wood-Prince and Elizabeth Coleman

Design, Chicago Luxury Beds, Designs by Pinky, Ladybug Vintage, the exotic skin handbags of Swift Leather International and J. Markell Designs. For the driving enthusiasts, automotive sponsor Lake Forest Sportscars displayed several Ferraris and offered test drives. Jewell Events catered the affair that also included a farm-to-table Bloody Mary bar.

*J.B. and M.K. Pritzker and Stephen Falk
(president of Northwestern Memorial Fndm.)*

Neal Zucker, MK Pritzker, Marko Iglendza and Rick Eddington

Charley, Charles, Joan and Willy Moore

The day was a tremendous success raising $1.4 million in sponsorships and commitments thanks, in part, to the Wood-Prince family, the Cressey Family Foundation, the Kovas Family, Joan and Charles Moore,

Joan and Bill Brodsky, Lydia and Pat Ryan, Bulley & Andrews, Jenner & Block LLP, the Coleman Family, Northern Trust, J.P. Morgan, Kirkland & Ellis, BDT and Company and Goldman Sachs.

Since its inception, the Invitational has raised over $6 million to support traditionally under-funded women's health programs at Northwestern Medicine.

Ashley and Pam Netzky

Diane and John Terlato